RE: FOURTH DISTRICT JURY TRIALS

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

NO. 21-12-30

The Idaho Supreme Court's November 29, 2021 Amended Emergency Order

Regarding Court Services provides:

[J]ury proceedings, including jury trials and grand jury proceedings, may commence anytime during a calendar week unless: a. the county in which the jury trial is to be held is located in a public health district in which Idaho's crisis standards of care are activated;<sup>1</sup> or b. the Administrative District Judge has determined that the county in which the prospective juror has been summoned to attend court has a seven-day moving average incidence rate of confirmed or presumed cases of COVID-19 of 25.0 or greater per 100,000 population as reflected on the Cases by County page of the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare's COVID-19 Data Dashboard available at www.coronavirus.idaho.gov[.]

The Administrative District Judge's determination described in paragraph (b) shall be based on the weekly COVID-19 incidence rates for that county published ten (10) days prior to the calendar week in which the jury trial is scheduled to occur. Idaho Supreme Court's November 29, 2021 Amended Emergency Order Regarding Court Services, at 3. (emphasis added).<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>None of the public health districts in this judicial district presently have crisis standards of care activated. See <https://healthandwelfare.idaho.gov/health-wellness/community-health/crisis-standards-care> ("On Nov. 22, 2021, Crisis Standards of Care (CSC) was deactivated in Idaho except for the Panhandle Health District in north Idaho.").

<sup>2</sup>"Once a trial has commenced, it should continue to verdict unless, in the discretion of the assigned judge, a significant increase in the county's weekly COVID-19 incidence rate or other local coronavirus exposure or public health action justifies a temporary suspension of the trial. Any order in this regard must be supported with written findings." Idaho Supreme Court's November 29, 2021 Amended Emergency Order Regarding Court Services, at 3-4. See also Idaho Supreme Court's September 10, 2020 Order Re: Commencement of Jury Trials, at 1 ("[T]he word 'commence' means the first day members of a jury venire are required to physically appear at a courthouse or designated facility.").

This order utilizes the data available at the end of business on Wednesday, December 29, 2021,<sup>3</sup> from the on-line COVID-19 case numbers issued by the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare, for each of the counties in this district.

1. Ada County

Ada County had a seven-day moving COVID-19 case average of 28.2 per 100,000 population. In Ada County, jury trials may not commence the week of January 10, 2022.<sup>4</sup>

2. Boise County

Boise County had a seven-day moving COVID-19 case average of 0.0 per 100,000 population. In Boise County, jury trials may commence the week of January 10, 2022.

3. Elmore County

Elmore County had a seven-day moving COVID-19 case average of 18.7 per 100,000 population. In Elmore County, jury trials may commence the week of January 10, 2022.

4. Valley County

Valley County had a seven-day moving COVID-19 case average of 12.5 per 100,000 population. In Valley County, jury trials may commence the week of January 10, 2022.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 30th day of December 2021.

HONORABLE STEVEN J. HIPPLER
Administrative District Judge
Fourth Judicial District

<sup>4</sup>If this order, any previous COVID-19 emergency orders of this Court, or an order entered by an Administrative District Judge pursuant to paragraphs 7 or 8 above resulted in any delay in the commencement of jury trials due to COVID-19, the time used to calculate the right to a speedy trial pursuant to I.C. § 19-3501 shall be deemed to have been tolled for those counties affected by said order." Idaho Supreme Court's November 29, 2021, Amended Emergency Order Regarding Court Services, at 4.
